

TAVEA A. SANDERSON

Empowering Student Growth

AUTHOR/ILLUSTRATOR OF IT'S IN ME

Before pursuing her passion for storytelling, Tavea led a high-volume marketing department as a graphic designer, where she developed her creative vision and love for inspiring others. Her debut book went on to earn the distinction of becoming an Amazon Best-Selling New Release. Today, as an author and speaker, she empowers students to uncover their hidden strengths. Through engaging presentations that blend relatable stories with dynamic energy, Tavea guides students on a journey of self-discovery, helping them approach schoolwork enthusiastically and build the courage to thrive both in and beyond the classroom.

Explore how I can support your school's mission.

“Tavea Sanderson truly energized our assembly of students and staff and left a positive lasting impression. Her ability to connect with her audience is evident, and her storytelling is top tier!”

Lauren Sweet, Student Advisor
Amerigo A. Anastasia Elementary

The Mission

SELF WORTH & CONFIDENCE

To plant a lasting seed of self-worth in children that inspires confidence and drives success in academics and life. By empowering students to recognize their value and capabilities, Tavea also supports Title 1's mission of promoting equity and excellence in education, helping underserved students overcome barriers and reach their highest potential.

Offerings

Elementary Age Author Talk: helps young learners discover their strengths, build self-worth, and foster a love for learning

Middle and High School Program: guides students in exploring their personal stories to build self-confidence, critical thinking, and resilience.

All programs are customizable | Classroom Visits, Family Literacy Night, Multiple Sessions, etc.

Designed to adapt to your students' needs and school goals.

Let's work together.
E: hello@taveasanderson.com

Check Out
It's In Me